Packers Preview

The NFL is scheduled to kick off Thursday, September 5th and the first Sunday slate of games is September 8th. The Green Bay Packers start their season on Friday September 6th in Sao Paulo, Brazil against the Philadelphia Eagles. They are coming off an exciting season with Jordan Love starting for his first season. Matt LaFleur will be back for his sixth season as the Head Coach.

This off-season had a lot less drama than past couple of ones. The Jordan Love era will start year 2 and after a great end of the year last season he signed a new contract extension that will make him the highest paid player in the league. The offense is looking to build on a good season with the whole receiving core back and with more experience. Aaron Jones is gone to the Vikings and Josh Jacobs will be the new starting running back for the Packers. The Packers are returning most of their defense from last year. Kenny Clark, Rashan Gary, and Jaire Alexander look to be the biggest players to watch on what should be a very good defensive team. New safety signee Xavier McKinney should help improve the safety position which was one of the weaker spots last year.

The Packers have been a team a lot of people are talking about to make noise in the NFC. They are only behind the San Francisco 49ers, Detroit Lions and Philadelphia Eagles in odds to win the NFC. Lets hope for a great season from the Packers Go Pack Go!

Dill Pickle Dip

- 1 (8 ounce) package cream cheese, at room temperature
- 1 cup chopped dill pickles, or more to taste
- ¼ cup finely chopped sweet onion
- 2 tablespoons pickle juice, or more to taste
- 1 teaspoon dried dill weed
- ½ teaspoon kosher salt
- 1 pinch freshly ground black pepper, or to taste

Directions

1. Stir cream cheese in a bowl with a wooden spoon until smooth.
2. Stir in dill pickles, onion, pickle juice, dill weed, salt, and pepper until evenly distributed. Refrigerate before serving, at least 1 hour.

A Message From Jay

Welcome to September!

The weather has cooled down to more seasonable weather, which is pleasant!

I had a busy month of August. My wife, Sara, and I went to the Wisconsin State Fair early in the month and met up with some friends. We enjoy the fair every year and this year I had Millie's Italian sausage, which was their last year at the fair. Sara and I and my mom went to a Lake Country Dockhounds minor-league baseball game in Oconomowoc early in August as well. They have a really nice atmosphere for watching summer baseball! Sara and I were up in Tomahawk for a long weekend with 3 other couples and we didn't have the best weather, but we still had a great time and got in some pontoon rides and campfires.

In mid-August, I went to 3 consecutive Brewer games against the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Cleveland Guardians and we won all 3 games! We got to celebrate my mom's 91st birthday at her home in Oconomowoc with most of the family 2 weekends ago. I was up in Lac du Flambeau in later August with 2 of my friends, and we enjoyed some golf, pickleball, swimming and pontoon rides. We had beautiful weather the whole time up there. Sara and I went to Cincinnati over Labor Day weekend and met up with my daughter Becky and her husband Cole. We had a great time there and caught a couple of the Brewers victories over the Reds as well.

Enjoy the end of summer and the beginning of fall!

Be well,
Jay
